

COLEMAN MINER

AND CARBONDALE ADVOCATE

Volume 3, No. 2.

Coleman, Alberta, Saturday, January 15, 1910

$2 00 Yearly

You Can Easily Decide

on which to give your friend for a

Christmas Gift

If you examine our stock of Cigars, Pipes and Smokers' Supplies. PIPES—No. 1 quality Vienna Meerschaum, from $4.00 up. Calabash Pipes, from $1.50 up. We have a large stock of Cased Pipes, including the popular brands of B.B.B., G.B.D., Peterson, E.A.M. etc, from $2.00 up.

CIGARS—In beautiful boxes, specially put up for the Xmas trade. Among our leading brands are Nobleman, Chamberlain's, Prince Rupert, Lord Tennyson, Irving, Doros, $1.00 up. CIGAR & CIGARETTE HOLDERS—Gold Mounted with No. 1 quality amber, from $1.50 up.

CIGAR CASES—We have a fine assortment in this line and the prices are right.

TOBACCO JARS—This is a very nice and appropriate gift—$1.50.

COMPANION SETS—We have them at all prices. Excellent value in Tobacco Jars, Ash Trays, Pouches, Match Safes, Cigarettes, Tobacco.

Alex. Morrison & Co.

YOU

Want What You Want When You Want It

and you can always get it

HERE

Headquarters for Books, Fancy Goods, Stationery, Rubber Goods, Patent Medicines and Drugs. Call and get acquainted with our

Hot Bargaining For Cold Days

Watch this space for the IRRESISTABLE BLIZZARDS OF BARGAINS FOR PAY-DAY

R R Webb

Druggist & Stationer

Prescription Specialist—

—Agent The Oliver Typewriter

Coleman, Alta

DR. JOHN WESTWOOD

Physician and Surgeon

Office: Miners' Union Hospital, 2nd Street

Hours: 9-10 a.m. 4-5 and 7-8 p.m.

Palmer & Thomson

BARRISTERS, ETC., NOTARIES PUBLIC

Solicitors for the Canadian Bank of Commerce

COLEMAN AND BLAIRMORE

Blairmore every Thursday.

Cabinet Cigar Store

AND

Barber Shop

We have the largest and most up-to-date stock in the Pass of

Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes and Fancy Goods for Smokers, at the very Lowest Prices

There is no end to the varieties we carry

M. E. GRAHAM, Prop.

Happenings of Interest

In and Around Coleman.

Joe Grafton is in town.

Miss Gate was taken seriously ill on Thursday.

Mrs. Mark Drumm was in Coleman last week.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. Milley on Jan. 4th., a son.

Mr. Stearns was able to leave the hospital on Wednesday.

J. D. S. Barrett returned from Calgary on Tuesday morning.

A. S. Farquharson of Fernie, paid Coleman a visit this week.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Williams, on Sunday the 9th., a son.

D. J. McIntyre accompanied the hockey team to Fernie and Moyie.

Miss Chipman of Fernie was visiting friends in Coleman this week.

E. Johnson, of the Blairmore Enterprise, was in town on Wednesday.

F. Livingstone, of the Coleman Miner staff, is on the sick list this week.

J. A. McDonald of Blairmore was transacting business in town this week.

F. W. Doubt, of Cowley, was a business visitor in Coleman on Wednesday.

Rev. T. M. Murray's subject for Sunday evening will be "What's in a name?"

Log hauling is now general with logging outfits. They are praying for more snow.

M. A. Clegg returned from Ontario on the 9th., where he spent his Xmas vacation.

Corp. Stewart who is stationed with the R.N.W.M.P. at Frank was in town this week.

Owing to our power plant being out of running order, our paper, this week, is later than usual.

Alex. Cameron has given several valuable prizes for the races at the skating rink next Monday.

O. E. Snowdon and J. A. Palmer of Calgary were in Coleman this week on a business visit.

W. J. Bartlett, editor of the Cowley Chronicle, expects his fiancée, Mrs. Ichabod Bartimeus Tameche, next month from Bay Roberts, Nfld.

Mr. McKeegan and family arrived on Sunday morning from Glace Bay, C.B. He takes a position on the staff of the International C. & C. Co.

The reading room is now open daily from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Latest papers and magazines are furnished. Call and spend a quiet and thoughtful hour.

Licence commissioners Ray and Dr. O. T. Strong, of Edmonton, D. C. Bayne, of Banff and T. McKerricher, of Olds, were in Coleman and Blairmore this week.

The Ladies Auxiliary will provide a social evening in the clubrooms of the institutional Church on Friday, the 21st inst. from 8 to 10. All are cordially invited.

Have you a weak throat? If so, you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treating too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the hardest to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the onset you will be saved much trouble. Sold by dealers everywhere.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

Satisfactory Report Was Rendered. Trustee Graham Re-elected.

The annual meeting of the Coleman School Board was held in the school house on Jan. 12th at 10:30 a. m. A large number of the parents and ratepayers were present. Alex. Cameron, chairman of the School Board, was elected to the chair.

C. P. Willmott, secretary of the board, gave his annual statement, in which were itemized every item of expense incurred during the year. The report which follows below was given in an able manner and was listened to attentively.

It was moved by Henry James, seconded by A. J. Blais, that the annual statement of the secretary be adopted as read. Carried.

It was moved by Henry James and seconded by A. J. Blais and carried that a vote of thanks be tendered to the trustees for their labors in connection with the school for the year 1909.

Alex. Cameron suitably replied to the vote on behalf of the board. H. Gate moved and A. J. Blais seconded that F. G. Graham be re-elected as trustee for another term. Carried. There being no other nomination the chairman declared Mr. Graham elected.

Annual Financial Statement.

Receipts.

Cash in hand $ 15.12

Cash disbursements sold in 1909 $925.00

Total taxes collected $109.05

Total government grants $105.22

Fees from pupils

Amount trustees borrowed by note $380.00

Received from all sources $21,015.09

Expenditures.

Teacher's salaries $2,700.25

Salaries, wages, sec., ant. & aud. 75.00

Paid on debentures 500.00

Paid on account borrowed by note and interest 3,000.05

Paid for erecting and repairing school house 10,210.00

Paid for purchasing and improving school grounds 400.00

Paid for furniture 251.20

Paid for supplies, stationery, etc. 33.05

Caretaker and fuel 365.10

Insurance 303.62

All purposes 304.09

Balance 1,707.24

Total $21,015.09

Total uncollected $1,006.61

Total amount district owes 178.70

Assets.

Land and Building $18,400

Furniture 508.25

Apparatus 413.00

Library 17.48

Outstanding taxes 1,006.54

Total assets 20,105.54

Liabilities.

Total debentures 11,030

Outstanding acct. 178.70

Interesting Items From

Our Blairmore Scribe

H. J. Matheson visited the South Fork this week.

The are lights give our town quite a city appearance.

D. C. Drain returned from a trip to Spokane this week.

Frank E. Hinds made a flying trip to Macleod this week.

Capt. Beebe was re-elected school trustee on Wednesday.

C. E. Bain, of Macleod, spent a few days in town this week.

Blairmore hockey team expect to play Hosmer on the latter's ice this week.

The cement plant is running nicely these days and the real thing is being turned out.

The government bridge gang are hard at work straightening out the first iron bridge east of town. This will be quite an improvement.

Lyon and Hinds have secured agencies for the largest and wealthiest fire insurance companies in the world and are prepared to take on any amount of business in The Pass.

The license commissioners sat here on Thursday of this week to consider the application of S. Monahan for a license for the southern hotel, Bellevue, and T. H. Duncan for a license at Passburg.

Talk about selling coal shares. Lyon & Hinds simply shovelled them out during the past week.

The 10 cent issue will all be sold before the end of the week then its good-bye to 10 cent shares. The next issue will be away up. Everybody has sterling faith in the North Kootenay Pass Collieries.

Lyon & Hinds are highly elated over the business transacted in their new offices in the Bde block this week. They sold pretty nearly everything in their sales book and found homes for many people. Applications for houses still pour in, but a vacant house in Blairmore these days is a novelty. Everybody who has done business with this new firm speaks highly of the up-to-date and efficient manner in which transactions are handled.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They do the work whenever you require their aid. These tablets change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, slothfulness into joyousness. Their action is so gentle one doesn't realize they have taken a purgative. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Mr. "Kirk," our foreman, has acknowledged his engagement to a fair lassie from the Bonnie Brae. Congratulations, Kirk.

"BONNIE BRIAR BUSH"

It will be great news indeed to all of us to learn that the "Bonnie" Briar Bush will be given here on Wednesday, January 13th at the Opera House. This Scotch comedy drama, which so well combines several of Ian MacLaren's best known stories of life in Drumtochty, is sure to please all theatre goers, especially our Scotch populace as it is full of the atmosphere of the thistle, the heather, and "Dear Auld Scotland." The play is wonderfully true to life in the delineation of Scotch character, such characters as may even now be found in country towns in Scotland, where the Calvinistic doctrine of redemption and damnation are lived up to the "times guid," consider the altar of religious duty in fashion. The play is shown where whose heart is overflowing with tender love for his mother's daughter, yet he is in a moment of what he deems righteous wrath, drives her from his

Stocktakin'

Stocktaking reveals the fact that we are overstocked in a number of lines. The great sale is over but we will continue to give a special

Twenty per Cent. Discount on the following

Ladies Underwear

Golf Jackets

Lawn Waists

Wrapperettes

Cretons

Men's Woolen Underwear

W. G. & R. Shirts

Men's Overcoats

We still have left a good selection of Ladies' Furs. All must be sold for 40 per cent off

See our assortment of remnants at cut prices. Some good bargains in Tapestry, Carpet Squares and Furniture

Coleman Mercantile Co.

LIMITED

Dealers in General Merchandise

COLEMAN CARTAGE CO.

and General Contractor

Estimates given on all classes of work, excavation, cement or Stone work

Sole agents for the McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Company

Local Coal.

O. N. ROSS

Room 10 Coleman Hotel

home, and struggling against his fatherly affection tries to make himself believe that his act was that of a just and God-fearing man. He is transformed from an ascetic and literal believer in the Calvinistic interpretation of the Scriptures to one who after all weansome good in the Golden Rule. All this is very beautifully brought out in the play. The scenery element in the piece is strong and pleasant. Its chief exponent is Pudge whose devil philosophy and witicism are an excellent foil for the more serious portions of the play. The company this season is all that could be desired. With a quartet of male singers, and William McNeil, a Scotch bag-piper, will add to the general effectiveness.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerous sounding cough which indicates diseased lungs. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The COLEMAN MINER is for sale at all the drug stores in the Pass.

All In a Garden Fair

The Evening Visitor Whose Presence Was Not an Intrusion.

By A. C. ROWSEY.

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

It was a queerly placed little house, this old home, perched nearly a hundred feet above the wide asphalted street that had been graded through the hill crest to the river, a hundred and fifty yards distant to the west.

There was a rugged front of jagged rock from the street line up to the little garden in front of the old colonial house at the top of the man made cliff. Shaky with age, a fence of white palings ran along the edge of the precipice as if to fend off the hated city from the innocent, fresh country beauty that flitted over its rickety top with the street below.

For Nature was in league against the palling. She strived to cover the rocks with blossoming honeysuckle vines and gorges of ivy, climbing and hanging the flowers like rippling grapes, in the seamy sides of the cliff where the dynamite had in tearing the live rock in twain opened wide crevices and gaping wounds in her side.

The top of the hill and the garden were reached by a long flight of wooden stairs—stairs weather worn and shabby for want of paint.

At the top of the stairs was a high gate. Beyond the gate the city disappeared. No murmur of it reached you in the garden.

Here were deep woods of giant oaks, their leaves carpeted with violets and strawberry blossoms and now and then marked by blackberry patches.

The garden was a mass of color. Great bushes of pink peonies flanked one side of the gravelled walk and the gate, rivaling the array of white blossoms on the other.

The path was hidden by blossoming Jacquin roses and lilac bushes. In the center of the lawn was a bonny birch alive with white flowers.

Out on the terrace Miss Snowden sat in her rustic rocker. A dainty sunnet protected her from the sun, just now puffed with a frown because of the flag she gave the gate as she burst into the garden.

Miss Snowden sighed plaintively as the girl came up the walk, her white tam-o-shanter perched on the side of her head at a rakish angle in odd contrast to the dark dress and dark hair drawn taut around the little head to the long braid dangling behind.

She swung a roll of parchment tied with a blue ribbon in her hand and bunched a little song as if there were no such things as an elder aunt's nerves.

"Now, what's the matter, aunty?" she queried, halting in front of Miss Snowden at the sign of the frown.

"Matter? Why, nothing, child," protested Miss Snowden, running her finger along the edge of her crocheting and beginning a new count.

The girl dabbed at her hat until it assumed a more dignified if not a more becoming pose.

"Mamma my better, aunty?" she asked. Then, without waiting an answer, she dropped on the lawn. "And who do you think was there?"

"I am sure I don't know. How should I?"

Miss Snowden worked furiously. "Colonel Payson." The girl looked up shyly. "The one the papers are all so full about. You know, who's just back from the Philippines."

Miss Snowden did not speak.

"Think of him coming all the way up here to our dinky little commencement!"

"Josie!" gasped Miss Snowden, horrified.

"But it was dinky—awfully dinky!" persisted her niece.

"He's the loveliest man you ever saw, aunty—so tall and straight—and he walks with his shoulders thrown back and his head up. His hair is only just beginning to turn gray. I could see that all the older girls were stealing glances at him, but he didn't take any notice of them. He came right up to me and looked at me so queer. One would think he'd never seen a girl like me before. He clasped hands with me and held my hand in his for a long while, still looking at me with that strange, watery look. I wonder what he did in the Philippines to make him so famous. He must be awful brave."

"Indeed?" Miss Snowden muttered. She was thinking deeply as she bent over those crochets, needing the evening light was falling. The sun had transformed the river at the end of the street into a flood of flaming color. Had he recognized the child?

"Oh, aunty, I want to tell you something! I wish you would listen," broke in her niece. "He was awful nice, but—"

"But what?" asked Miss Snowden.

"He kissed me!" the girl replied in an awestricken whisper, looking down at the river.

The elderly Miss Snowden quivered. She could not speak. Presently the girl, filled with embarrassment, plucked at the ribbon of her diploma, then slowly rose and went into the house, her cheeks flushed and her pretty hair bowed.

The colors trooped in the evening sky; dusky shadows appeared in the old garden. She sat, her head leaned back and her eyes fixed upon the bonny river.

"Aunty," called the girl softly from the house, "remember the bonny river. The elderly Miss Snowden made no reply. The girl in the doorway stood waiting. Presently she stooped into the garden and pillored her head nuzzly in the lap of the elderly Miss Snowden.

"After all my care, Josie," murmured the elderly Miss Snowden—"after I had taught you how evil men are."

"Was it really so awful?" the girl looked up pensively. "Every one thought so. But it seemed all right."

"Josie!" the elderly Miss Snowden ejaculated in shrill horror. Her hand grew rigid upon the girl's head.

Years before there had been a wedding under Miss Snowden's roof. Then and there a baby girl, and the mother being in delicate health, Miss Snowden had the delicate care of the child.

She used to bathe her and dress her, put her to bed at night and with her little she went to sleep. The girl baby had grown to be a girl when the young husband and father, who was a soldier in the service of the United States, sailed from the other side of the globe with his regiment and remained away a long while.

But the time came when he became impatient that he heard nothing of his command. He sent a trusted messenger, who in due time returned with the news that they were both dead. He mourned for them and when he was ordered home with his command he sought the place where he had left them. It was a risky game Miss Snowden, who had sent back the report that his wife and child were dead, was playing. And now she had come to the end of passable deception.

Some one was coming up the path. A man! He was opening the gate!

"It's he!" gasped the girl, rising in dismay.

She fled toward the house, leaving Miss Snowden to face the enemy.

He came leisurely up the path, stopping now and then to caress a peony in a reminiscent way.

"Well, sir! How dare you come here?" rang out the challenge from the high seat, and a Colonel Robert E. Payson. May I ask whom I am addressing?"

"I refuse to answer, sir," responded the young lady. "You are an intruder—your presence is an intrusion—a great intrusion."

He bent his head slightly and listened to the voice rather than to the words.

"I know your voice," he said slowly. "It seems connected with something very distasteful. But I cannot place you."

He stood in profound thought for a moment.

"The reason I called," he said deliberately, "is rather curious. Eleven years ago I went to the Philippines, leaving a wife and a four-year-old girl. They were to follow when the country became settled. News reached me a year later that they had died. Little Miss Payson looked as much like my wife in her girlish days as it—well, played me with a wild, unreasonable hope that perhaps there had been some mistake."

Miss Snowden preserved a venomous silence.

"These peonies, the honeysuckle, the wisteria," he murmured, moving about the garden, "all speak so strongly of my wife that it seems to me she must be here."

Miss Snowden's niece came down the walk from the house. Behind her, clasping her hand, was a slender little woman.

Miss Snowden, hearing the steps on the path, turned, started helplessly and straightened up in her rocker.

"Beesie, haven't you any more pride?" she cried shrilly. "Think, he never wrote when you were nearly dead! Think of the report his corporal brought me! Think of his not coming home for all these years! Think of his deserting you!"

The color died forward up the path.

Miss Snowden flashed past, pale with anger and veiled fear.

Inside the house she hurried to the big old fashioned kitchen, locked the doors and from the cupboard drew forth a packet of letters and threw them into the range.

"They'll never know," she muttered, staring at the packet, feeling vaguely the shadows of coming desolation and isolation creeping upon her, while the venous jealousy of years burned and fanned in her heart.

There was a gentle knock on the kitchen door after the knob had been turned. She did not heed.

"They're not such other," she muttered. And what did she say? She did not. He had no right to take her from me. I was so alone."

She sat in the kitchen chair and stared into the future.

And what did she say? For herself a lonely old age untroubled by remorse, for her niece life for a few years with her reunited parents in the army post. Then love, then marriage with a young officer and a group of boys checked, bright eyed children springing up about her. Then she saw, but it did not enable her to throw off her selfish regret, that the other's girl was her loss, for a selfish nature cannot become a generous one. Colonel Payson and his wife left the cause of the enforced separation without remorse—indeed, without again seeing her.

AN IDOL'S EYE.

Strange Story Is Told to Account For Luard Mystery.

The public may still remember the mysterious murder last year of the wife of the aged General Luard, in the grounds of their country home in Kent, Eng., and the subsequent suicide of the husband. It is believed that rumors relating to the general's guilt were largely responsible for his act.

The case is as much a mystery as ever. But an extraordinary story has reached London from an English officer serving in the Far East which suggests a solution of the affair.

Mrs. Luard's body was found stripped of its valuables, which included, according to the official account, a net purse, two ordinary rings, and an antique diamond ring, said to be over 100 years old, with a very large diamond in the centre and encircled with other diamonds. No trace of this stolen property could be found in all England. But now comes the story that in a Chinese temple, an idol which many years ago had been short of an eye, is now once more perfect.

General Luard on his wedding day presented to his bride an antique ring in which was set the precious stone that had been carried off long ago by a Buddhist temple. All through her happy married life, Mrs. Luard wore that ring. Through all these years death was ever near her, if the story be true that the worshippers of the despoiled god were sworn to restore to him the jewel from which he had been deprived.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

English people in the district, says the officer on whose authority the story is published, knew about the disappearance of the jewel from the face of the god. When they heard of its reappearance and remembered the murder of Mrs. Luard, they drew their own conclusions. Wild and improbable these conclusions may seem, but those who know the east know that an eastern fanatic would willingly range the world on such a pilgrimage of vengeance.

On the fatal day, a hand stretched out from nowhere, was upon her. Luard and she died. It may be, because of the violation long years ago of a Buddhist temple, the name of which she did not know, hidden away in a corner of China of which she had never heard. With something of Oriental magic the murderer vanished. Through the cordons of police he slipped, carrying the relic which for decades had been the pride and the acquisition of his wife, and which would make him a hero or saint among his people.

DAIRY WORK IN INDIA.

Mr. Brymanjee Cowajee. Says His Country is Awaiting Behind.

Mr. Brymanjee Cowajee, of the Imperial Dairy Co., Bombay, India, has been in Toronto visiting the leading dairies. Mr. Cowajee has travelled extensively throughout Europe, England and America making investigations into the various methods of conducting dairy work.

In an interview, he said that "Holland is far and away ahead of any other nation in its dairy work, and especially in butter-making. In India," continued Mr. Cowajee, "we have not the machinery that you use here and not the strict laws of sanitation, and I shall take much back with me that will be of great service to my countrymen. We are a century behind you in this as in many other things."

The circumstances, however, are so different that I hardly know what to do. In India we do not drink cow's milk as you do here, but we do drink buffalo milk. There is more fat in it than in the cow's milk, and the heat present makes it more palatable. You have not here. There is from six to eight per cent. of fat in buffalo milk. The approximate analysis of butter made from buffalo milk is: Water, 14.08 per cent.; fat, 83.30 per cent.; casein and curd, 0.84 per cent.; salt (sodium chloride), 1.78 per cent.

"The largest milk depot I have ever seen is in Berlin, Germany, though the farmers there are an education for cleanliness and efficiency."

"The farmers of India are ignorant and uneducated, and it is hard to introduce any improvements among them."

"Up to now we have been wasting a good deal of skimmed milk, but when I go back we shall make cheese of it. You see, Hindus are largely vegetarians, and therefore have no pipes to feed with skimmed milk. I will also introduce the most modern types of machinery. Owing to the heat, we have to put the milk in air-tight tins, and I am going to have machinery sent over, also, to make these tins more perfect."

"I have learned much during my travels, chiefly the importance of attending to minor details, which hitherto we have neglected," concluded Mr. Cowajee.

There are, first of all, ruins of a Hindu temple, a small one, consisting of a number of pits, which are supposed to have served as houses for the cows. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with deep, transverse ribs, and a flat ceiling. The ruins are in the east end. These ancient dwellings are in two parallel lines, divided by an open space, and bounded by banks. Not far away are a number of Druid stones and three large tumuli. The ruins are also close by in the fourteenth century foundation, and has a peculiar vault, with

OUR MINERAL WEALTH.

In Recent Years:

The remark is often made that the Dominion of Wales is a mineral producer. It is not. Although the subterranean wealth of the Dominion has probably been developed to the limit, the development of its mines has been so rapid that few people outside the country are even indirectly concerned with its mines, the extent of its mineral industries.

Argument of the present, and the work of the future, is the subject of a paper by Mr. J. H. G. Jones, M.P., at the meeting of the Royal Society of Arts, at Sydney, C.B. There a population approaching 50,000 is dependent upon the coal-mines of the country, and exceeding four million tons annually much of which is exported to Canada, the United States, and other foreign ports, while the remainder is used for domestic purposes. A large portion of the output is, however, sold to small towns or villages, and the coal-mines of the Dominion of Wales, and of the counties of Newfoundland, and the Cape of Good Hope, and Cape Straits. Not only system and drives out disease, heals the decayed tissue and restores lost energy. Its use daily will prevent and ward off that most subtle disease consumption.

RESTORED BY EPIPHONE

Dr. T. A. S. UM
LIMITED.

TOUCHLINE

Problem	Possible Explanation
1. The number of people who are employed in the service sector has increased significantly in the past decade.	The service sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
2. The number of people who are employed in the manufacturing sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The manufacturing sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in rural areas.
3. The number of people who are employed in the agricultural sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The agricultural sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in rural areas.
4. The number of people who are employed in the construction sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The construction sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
5. The number of people who are employed in the health care sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The health care sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
6. The number of people who are employed in the education sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The education sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
7. The number of people who are employed in the government sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The government sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
8. The number of people who are employed in the private sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The private sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
9. The number of people who are employed in the public sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The public sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.
10. The number of people who are employed in the non-profit sector has decreased significantly in the past decade.	The non-profit sector has become a major source of employment for many people, particularly in urban areas.

line. THE

Bates, to see four two little boys years together. The summer boys

"I told Egzy," he said, "that they Cleanses and purifies . . . . .

...one day, and we decided that

"'Very well,' she grudgingly agreed. 'You shave yourself, and I'll cut y-

KILL FOR

For all Throat and Gland Troubles, Pleurisy, Lung, Abscesses, Old Sores, Ulcers, Fevers, etc.

W Agents want to publish and re-

Shockers, Sh
Loaders, Etc.

Interviewed Stories

Success

We will send you a copy free

9 Adelaide St., E.,

Find

JOHN HALLAM, TORONTO

ALL THE OTHERS
ARE

STANDARD ARTICLE

Gillett's Perfumed Lye.

Magic Baking Soda.

E. W. GILLET CO., LTD., Toronto, O.

41 Meat Market

Limited

Head Office:

Pincher Creek, Alberta

Markets in—

PINCHER CREEK, Alberta

BELLEVUE

FRANK.

BLAIRMORE.

COLEMAN.

and MICHEL, British Columbia

Choice Meats

and prompt delivery is our guarantee

Pacific Hotel*Mrs. F. Williams

Late of Coal Creek and Fernie,

Proprietress

Temporance Hotel

Is the place to stop when in town. Good accommodations for travellers.

Clean, large, well lighted rooms

Table unsurpassed in the West

Hotel Coleman*W. H. Murr

Proprietor

Rates, $2.00 per day.

Water Works, Steam Heat
and
Electric Light throughout

Steam Heated Sample Rooms

Grand Union Hotel

ADAM PATERSON, Manager

Liquors imported direct from Europe and guaranteed

Sparkling Wines
Scotch Whisky
Brandy
Gin
Ports
Cherry

Special attention to working men

$1.50 Per Day

COLEMAN MINERpublished by The Foothills Job Print and News Company, Limited.

Subscription $2.00 per Year in Advance

Advertising rates on application

J. D. S. BARRETT, Manager

T. B. BRANDON, Editor

Coleman, Saturday, January 15, 1910.

OUR SPECIAL EDITION

Our long-looked-for and patiently awaited souvenir edition has at last appeared and the publishers of the Miner feel gratified as the book has a much more prepossessing appearance than was at first thought possible to issue at this office. The publishers also wish to thank those who have assisted by giving interesting and important data supplying of articles and photos. All work combined has made a souvenir worthy of Coleman's name and Coleman's importance.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Buy a souvenir edition, read it, send it away and help make Coleman's name as glorious as it ought to be.

Now since the financial reports have been adopted as quite satisfactory we can go on spending as wisely as ever.

As one of our staff has decided to become a benedict, we will not publish any memoirs on petticoat government.

We are indeed thankful for the service rendered to us by the Michel Reporter in that it has helped us to promulgate the doctrine and belief of this paper in regard to the labor question. Under the caption "Eating Humble Pie," our editorial "A Satisfactory Solution" appears. We think that it improves the scrambled-egg make up of the New Michel better.

Coleman Locals Continued

J. F. Povich was in town this week from Spokane.

Owing to lack of space we were unable this week to publish the "Installation of officers of the I.O.O.F."

W. Brown returned from Calgary last week, where he had been attending the Grand Lodge of the I.O.O.F.

The staff of the Foothills Job Print & News Co. do hereby challenge the Coleman Mercantile staff to a friendly game of hockey within ten days.

Owing to pressure on our space we are obliged to hold over the "First Annual Report of the Coleman School Board" till our next issue.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds and irritations of the throat and lung diseases. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The services in St. Albans church are as follows—services every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. First Sunday in every month service and celebration of Holy Communion at 11 a. m. Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Archie McLeod, the well-known real estate man of Blairmore is fast becoming one of the most popular business men of the Pass. He has just recently returned from the east, where he transacted an enormous business. Mr. McLeod has the choicest lots in Blairmore on his list.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a meritorious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by dealers everywhere.

Tenders have been called for the construction of the road over the bluff to Slav Town. See advertisement.

Kid Pigeon, of Spokane, and Kid Clark, of Lethbridge, will box twenty rounds in the Coleman opera house on Monday, 17th inst.

Dr. Bruce, dentist, will make his next regular visit to Coleman on January 16, 17 and 18, and may be consulted at the Coleman Hotel. Call and make appointments early.

T. M. Cruickshanks has been engaged as principal of the Coleman public school. He has a first-class certificate from Ontario and is widely known as a successful teacher.

Roberts, who was sent up for trial at the Macleod assizes last week, was convicted the day after of stealing a razor from F. Livingstone. He was given three months on this charge.

Constable Hall leaves the R. N. W. M. P. force today and is in Macleod securing his release. During his stay here he has made many friends and has always discharged his duty impartially.

Albert Jones was successfully operated on last week by Dr. Westwood when salivary calculus was removed from under his tongue. The calculus weighed 36 grains and was a source of much annoyance to Mr. Jones.

The play, "They Loved a Lassie," which was played by the San Francisco Opera company last Tuesday night brought out a large audience. The play was well executed and teemed with keen repartee and genuine mirth. Toddy Webb has always been a favorite with Coleman audiences and his return here on Jan. 27th, will be welcomed by all lovers of good dramas. Next time the company will be strengthened by a well known star and four more chorus girls.

Bellevue

R. Livett and J. Burke, two of our most popular young men, entertained a few friends to a tasty supper at Mr. J. Lindsay's on January 8th. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the menu list was not only large but inviting, especially the Methy Lydvile pudding and a typical Welsh patty. After the supper a splendid toast list was arranged and the speeches all carried with them the great popularity of Messrs. Livett and Burke. The gathering dispersed after heartily thanking their two genial hosts.

Lille Jottings

Inspector Belcher paid Lille a visit on Tuesday.

J. W. May and family visited McLearen's Mill on Sunday last.

The Misses Williams left this week for Calgary where they will attend college.

T. Evans, son of W. O. Evans, of Frank, has left here to attend the Western Canada college at Calgary.

Thompson & Co. have lately adopted the Huber account register system, which is the most up-to-date book keeping system we know of.

THE UNION AGAIN

Coleman, Alta., Jan. 10, 1910

Coleman Miner

Dear Mr. Editor—I understand that John Balko and his associates intend to return back to the U. M. W. of A. I want to know why should he want to return? Is it because he found that the U. M. W. of A. has turned a new leaf on his account since his departure and have reached such a high stage of reform that he finds it at last a suitable place for him and his worthy suit to lay themselves down? I guess he expects that by now he ought to be an object of public admiration and applause for the bold stand that he made against the union, and that his action ought not to be considered anything less than heroic. I can hardly say who deserves the honor of bringing about such a distinct change in his attitude towards the union. But I think that the failure of his influence upon his own countrymen has a great deal to do with it. Perhaps they began to suspect that there is something ignoble in his intentions, and that he had an axe to grind. Is it true about Mr. Balko that he has a very bad taste for manual labor and that he had planned a way of ease at the expense of the toil of his fellowmen? I hope this is not true. But he had no more cause to kick than any other member, and his actions to entice his brothers in the way he did was very wrong and can be regarded nothing less than a wilful act of faithlessness and a base thing to contemplate. But I am glad that he is looking now the right way and can see things in their true light.

Yours, etc.,

WELL-WISHER.

How We Will Serve You in 1910

During the coming year we will continue our policy that has proved so successful to us of providing high class goods at lowest prices. Whenever there's a chance for improvement in service, we shall make it. Every means in our power will be employed to make this the most satisfactory trading place in the town. If you desire to trade where stock is complete, where you'll find just what you want when you want it, when you'll invariably receive prompt, courteous attention, where your money will be cheerfully refunded if goods purchased are not satisfactory, this store will appeal to you "We hope to see you often in 1910."

Evening Dress Fabrics

We have some very pretty
Eolinnies in the following shades
Old Rose Nile Green Cream
Copenhagen Blue Deep Red
Blue

Width 42 in. Price $1 per yard

Ladies and Childrens
Underwear*ABOUT 90 PIECES

Odd ends of stock—almost any size you might want. All going at a uniform price of

25c

per garment

This is Where we Part
With our Furs and Heavy Dressfords

No reasonable offer for furs will be refused

1 piece fawn stripe tweed
Suits, 54 in. reg. $1.75 now $1.00
1 piece grey tweed, 54 inches, reg.
$1.50 now $1.00
1 piece brown bronell, lots 50 inches, regular $1.50 now $1.00
1 piece fawn Bronell, lots 50 inches,
regular $1.50 now $1.00

Ladies' and Children's Footwear

Ladies' Felt Boots ..... $ 2.00
Ladies' Felt Foxgob Boots..... 2.50
Feet slippers, .65 1.00 1.25 and 1.50
Full range of children's feet and leather goods

J. T. Bell's

fine grades in straps, Oxfords and Balmorals, Overshoes and Rubbers

LADIES' COATS

Six only—in sizes 32-34-36-38

Black Beaver and Fancy Tweed

Were priced at $10 to $15

Your choice now for

$5.00*Ladies Dressing
Sacque

One only, navy silk, lined with jamet silk, heavily quilted

Price $6.00 now $3.50.

ONE ONLY DRESSING GOWN
Jamet Silk, lined with pink silk, 60 inches long, heavily quilted, a beautiful garment
rice $11.50 now $7.50

Sheep Lined Coats

Mackinaw Coats

Tweed Lined ock Coats

Mackinaw Pants

Heavy Tweed Pants

ALL AT REDUCED PRICES*Men's Foot Wear

Felt Boots..... $ 2.50
Felt Boots foxed..... 3.00
Felt Boots foxed fine..... 3.50
Felt Congress..... 1.90

Lumbermen's Rubbers

Oil Tan Larkigans

Full range of fine fords

J. T. Bell's

Fine ancing omps

Rubbers and Overshoes

Fresh Groceries

Everything you want in the Line of Groceries and Provisions

W. L. Ouimette

Canadian Coal Consolidated Co., Limited

Miners and Shippers of Bituminous Coal. Three grades Screened, Mine Run and Slack

Frank, Alberta

SANITARY INSPECTOR'S REPORT

For the year 1909.

Gentlemen—In presenting to you my report for the year just closed, I would draw your attention to a few cases which need your most careful attention. 1. The large amount of overcrowding at both ends of the village, in some cases 6 and 8 men in a small shack without any ventilation of any kind. Now, should any infectious disease break out, what would be the result? 2. The case of sloop water. I am very sorry to say, but some people do not know the danger arising from this water, they seem to think if it is thrown out of doors, then no more is needed. Now take this time of the year, it is thrown out, then gets frozen. Then the spring comes and thaws the ground. There is the danger because with the thaw comes smells which create disease. 3. The want of a hospital. We have had cases in our village which needed hospital treatment, but got none. Now, I must ask you to consider this seriously, because all cases of infectious or contagious disease should at once be removed to hospital. With every respect to the Miner's Union hospital, I must say that hospital is not for such cases, so we must have one for these cases to protect the public health. In closing I would ask you to take these subjects into careful consideration, over-crowding, question of sloop water, and hospital.

HY. GARE,
Sanitary Insp.

"THE LION AND THE MOUSE"

"The Lion and the Mouse," the celebrated play by the great American author, Charles Klein, will be presented at the Coleman Opera House on Friday, Jan. 21st. Miss Belle Stevenson will interpret the role of Shirley Rosemore, the girl who discovers the human side of the great trust manipulator. Mr. Blake will appear in the character of John Bunker Ryder, one of the strongest parts in recent dramatic literature. "The Lion and the Mouse" is a masterpiece of playwriting. It is not only tremendously strong in its scenes, especially at the close of the third, when Shirley Rosemore struggles with the Octopus for the life and honor of her father, but the whole of the piece has served a great purpose in the way of acquainting the people of this continent with the great manipulators of finance. For all men have hearts. Mr. Ryder appears to not have, and to further the ends of his business he did not stop at stealing the honor of a grand old judge. Up to recent years the predominant note of American business has been "business for business sake." Business method justified its own ends, or rather the end justified the means; in the mind of the man in charge. The muck-rakers got busy, and Mr. Klein wrote "The Lion and the Mouse." The play, more than all the muck-rakers, has softened the harsh note of American business. It has awakened the business conscience to the realization of the fact that business crimes for profit's sake are ethically wrong. But the play is no sermon, no editorial. It is a struggle of giants for right and wrong and the result is most gratifying. The company is strong and the acts are realistically staged. The play is well worth the patronage of all people. Saturday, January 22nd, they will produce this roaring farce comedy in 3 acts "Brown's in Town." There will be a matinee Saturday at 2.30.

Mrs. M. E. Taylor
Graduate Nurse
Office at residence of Mrs. W. Evans
Coleman, Alberta

TENDERS CALLED FOR
Tenders will be received for building a road connecting Coleman with Slav Town up to Friday noon, January 21. Plans and specifications will be found at F. G. Grabau's. Lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

ALEX. CAMERON,
Chairman Coleman Municipal Council.

"KID" PIGEON

Coleman Opera House TWO NIGHTS COMMENCING

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21ST

Summers Stock Co.

Friday—"The Lion and the Mouse"

Chas. Klein's Great Play in Four Acts

Saturday -- "Brown's in Town"

A ROARING FARCE COMEDY IN THREE ACTS.

Prices: $1.00, 75c. & 50c.

Matinee Saturday at 2.30

A Golden Opportunity at CARBONDALE

Secure a lot and build a home for yourself. Lots are $100 and upwards. Finest townsite in the West.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!

The McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Company, Limited are already filling large orders for coal. Send or leave your order at their office Coleman, Alta.

McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Co.
Limited

Coleman

Alberta

Christmas

Oh, Christmas!

It is coming near, all who want Christmas presents in endless variety see Alex. Cameron's immense stock. Cut glass, fancy clocks, watches, from the solid gold diamond mount down to any price. Ladies Rings, solid gold, from $2.00 up. Brooches, Necklets, Lockets, Silverware—the largest stock yet. But, oh! The prices are so catching. Old am young.

See the Christmas Cards at

Alex. Cameron's

Watchmaker, Optician
and Issuer of Marriage Licenses

J. E. Upton

High-Class

Tailoring

Best

Men's

Furnishing

Store

In

Coleman

CANADIAN PACIFIC

WESTERN EXCURSIONS

SINGLE FARE

Plus $2.00 for the Round Trip
From all stations in Ontario, Part Arthur and West, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to

VANCOUVER
VICTORIA and
WESTMINSTER

Also to Okanagan Valley and Kootenay Points

Tickets on sale December 16, 17, 18, 1909; January 21, 22, 23, 1910; good to return within three months.

E. Disney

Contractor and Builder

Brick, Lime, Hard Wall
Plaster, Coast Flooring,
Mouldings, Doors and Windows always on hand.

Lumber of all Kinds

T. W. Hills Buy Here and Plasterer
Work neatly executed
Write to - Blairmore Alberta

Advertise in this Paper

Where you Get Results!!

J. A. Rudd
Hillcrest - - Alberta

Coleman Realty Co.

Coleman - - Alberta

Have a snap on Main Street
Two Lots and Building

$1500 Down Balance on Good Terms

Dwelling house on Third Avenue, $600, down balance monthly. Agents for the leading Fire Insurance Companies of the World.

Post Office Building, Main St.

Telephone 106

Calls up the

West End Livery

Where you get the best turnout in the town

Double and Single Drivers and easy gaited Saddle Horses

Wood always on hand

Pack Horses and Competent guides furnished to Parties desirous of taking Hunting and Fishing Trips.

Contract and Heavy Team Work a Speciality

We are here to please the people and all we ask is a trial, no matter how small—"No order too big, none too small."

J. B. Miller

Town Lots

Houses and Lots for Sale

In the cleanest and best town in
The Crow's Nest Pass

High Grade Steam and coking coal

We manufacture The Finest Coke on the continent

Correspondence solicited at the Head office, Coleman

International Coal & Coke Co.
Limited

SPECIAL SALE

COMMENCING

JAN. 15TH TO JAN. 29th

We shall offer the whole of our
IMMENSE FURNITURE STOCK, PICTURES, CHINA WARE,
CARPETS AND LINOLEUMS
AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FOR
CASH

Watch our window for Special Lines. Remember this is our first sale and we intend to be up to our reputation of giving a square deal to all. Every one who purchases $2.50 worth of goods will be given a chance to win a 6-hole cast iron range, valued at $55.00

Coleman Hardware Co.

COLEMAN,
Alberta.

The Palm Saturday Specials

The only place to come Christmas time is the Palm. For splendid boxes of chocolates from 25c upwards. This is also headquarters for Oyster Cocktails and everything you need in the way of refreshments.

W. L. Bridgeford

E. MORINO

General Contractor in Stone, Brick, Cement, Blocks, Excavating, Building Coke Ovens a Specialty. All work guaranteed. See me for Estimates.

Coleman Liquor Store In Your Trunk

Single packed where its handy to get at is a good place to put a bottle of Good Old Cherry before leaving to take that trip. If you want to add a bottle of health invigorating Rye or Bourbon we can supply it. Our store is the precise place to get good liquors at. Prices are always reasonable.

W. EVANS Wholesale Liquor Dealer

For First Class Work GO TO THE Photographer IN THE Pacific Hotel Block

Spring Lamb
 Spring Chicken
 Fresh Turkey
 Provisional Government
 Creamery Butter
 Fresh Laid Eggs
 Geese

P. Burns & Co.
Limited

Coleman Livery

Every attention given to travelers and the local public

Reliable Horses, Good Rigs
 General Draying Business Done
 Wm. Haley, Proprietor

Contractor and Builder

All kinds of carpenter work done on the shortest notice by first-class workmen. No order too large, none too small.

Having purchased a splendid house, I am now in a position to offer my services for undertaking for very reasonable prices.

T. W. Davies
 Coleman, Alberta

Summit Lodge, No. 30
 A. F. and A. M., G. R. A.
 Meets first Thursday in each month at 8 p.m. in the Masonic hall. All visiting brethren made welcome.
 J. A. Rice, W. M. A. M. Morrison, Sec.

Coleman Lodge No. 24 meets every Monday at 8 p.m. Visiting brethren welcome.
 THOMAS HAINES, N.G. W. B. Brown, Sec.

Knights of Pythias, Castle Hall, Sentinel Lodge No. 25
 Meets every alternate Saturday in I.O.O.F. hall. Visitors welcome.
 C.C. THOMAS HAINES, K of R. & S., W. T. Oswin

Daughters of Rebekah Victoria Lodge No. 7
 Meets in I.O.O.F. Hall every 1st and 3rd Tuesday.
 Visitors cordially invited.
 Mrs. C. Dunlop, N.G. Miss E. Anthony, R.S.

Macleod Business Cards

DR. BRUCE, SURGEON-DENTIST
 Office over Young's Drug Store
 Special attention to preservation of the natural crown and bridge work
 Summiform for the painless extraction of teeth. The safest anesthetic known to the profession.
 Visits Coleman monthly

CAMPBELL & FAWCETT
 Barristers, Notary Publics
 Office Over Chow Sam's Restaurant
 MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE

COLIN MACLEOD
 Solicitor
 Barrister
 Etc.

MCKENZIE, McDONALD & WATT
 Advocates, Notaries, Etc.
 Office Macleod Branch at Casselman
 MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM PROPERTY
 M. McKenzie, J. W. McDonald, J. R. Watt

Trained Nurse
 Open for engagement. Apply
 Maternity Home, Macleod
 Phone 130

MR. J. R. CRAWFORD.
 Box 11, Coleman.
 Teacher of Piano and Organ.
 Visits Cowley weekly.
 Certificate Trinity College, London, England.
 Pianos and Organs Tuned and Repaired

DRAY LINE

We wish to inform the people of Coleman that we are prepared to do all kinds of draying at the shortest notice. We have some of the best horses in the country and other equipment is strictly first-class.

We solicit your patronage and guarantee satisfaction

H. Villeneuve
 Proprietor

D. A. TAYLOR, M.D.C.M.
 SPECIALIST
 EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
 Stafford Block, Lethbridge, Alta.
 OFFICE HOURS: 9.30 to 12 a.m.; 2 to 5 p.m.; 7 to 8 p.m.

J. & P. Pisony Butchers

Good quality of Meat, Fish, Eggs etc. always in stock.
 Prompt and courteous attention always assured.

Main Street, Coleman

E. Spry & A. E. Knowles
 General Blacksmiths and Dealers

In House Paints, Building Papers, Nails, Patent Roofing, Wagons, Democra, Farm Implement etc.

Situating Opposite the Tipple

Coleman Laundry

Goods called for and returned
 E. C. GOOEY, Proprietor

Some Startling Prices!

17 Jewel Waltham Movement in 20 year Fortune Case, $12.50
 7 Jewel Waltham Movement in 20 year Fortune Case, $7.50
 23 Jewel Vanguard Movement in 20 year Fortune Case, $12.00

Send us your repairing. Satisfaction is guaranteed and money saved.

We do our own engraving and stone setting.

Official Time Inspectors for the Great Northern Railway at Michel

Somerton Bros.
 Frank Blairmore Michel

MISS BELLE STEVENSON, at Coleman Opera House, Friday, Jan. 21st